Dear Ms Lewis,

We are writing to congratulate you and the school on the result of your Ofsted inspection which was published recently. To have secured the overall 'Good' judgement is a very notable achievement.

We thoroughly enjoyed reading the report. It was pleasing to read that the school is good because effective teaching ensure that most pupils currently in the school make good progress in all subjects. We also noted that teaching is interesting and enjoyed by pupils and the school keeps pupils safe and looks after them well.

Please pass our congratulations to your staff, governors, pupils and parents for their efforts in achieving this important judgment for the school.

With best wishes

Yours sincerely
